“ Jeff, I met your mother and father when we were in Rawlin's House Rehab in December 2016 and January 2017. Sorry for your loss. I had to work so I did not make it to the visitation, but I have not forgotten your parents and our time in Rehab together. Sincerely, Phil Carson.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. He was such a good person and I loved him so much. He's in Heaven now with mom sitting on the couch and both of them are talking so fast and at the same time! With love and sympathy, David & Karen (Champagne) Lister

“ I found this poem, and it made me think of Uncle John....who had a knack for writing poetry himself.

A loving nature,
A heart of gold,
The very best
This world could hold.
Never selfish, always kind,
These are memories you left behind.
You left behind
A silent thought
A quiet prayer,
For a special person,
Is in God's care.

....thanks for taking us into your heart and home....more times than I can count....you did have the GIFT of hospitality.

Each and every time I do a puzzle on my iPad, I will think of you.

Your niece-Pooh, Tammy

“ I have many special memories but the best was reading to him and talking about many of his thoughts and feelings.he loved his wife, children, daughter in laws and brand and great children. Uncle John has the gift of hospitality and everyone was welcome aunt Bert cooked.Tammy Lindsay and Hilary were guests often while at college. We have an enquiry chair. Getty

“ One of my most favorite memories of John from years ago is he would point to my upper chest and ask, "What's that?" I would look down and he would proceed to flick me on my nose. LOL What a fun character he was!
