“ Joe was one of the best bosses I ever had at Wavetek in the Machine Shop. I will pray for strength and peace for his family. You should be proud of the man he was.

“ My family lived next store to the Jones's on ridgeview. They were all like a second family to me and my sister. In fact I remember one night packing my bags and asking Dora if I could live with them. So needless to say my family's thoughts and prayers are with Dora, Pat , Scott and Steve. May God shower his love and peace on you all. Love Kim ,Bev and Suellen Brown

“ Our prayers and thoughts continue for all of you and we celebrate Joe's life and his special relationship with each of you. It is a testimony to see the four brothers so active together and separately. Dora, we continue to pray you can feel the loving arms of our Lord holding you tightly.
