“ My memories of your wife, your mother, Joyce. May it bring you comfort during this hard time. Joyce was my work mom, she was so wise, kind and loved her family and full of life. Whenever I was not at my desk everyone knew where to find me they would call into Joyce’s desk and say is your daughter in there. and of course I would be. We would start talking about work and then the conversation would go God know where. We would talk about anything and everything. As years passed I moved away from Indiana but we stayed in contact at least 3 times a year Mother’s Day and our birthdays and would catch up for all that happened in between. Rest in heaven my dear friend. I express my heartfelt sympathy.

In our times of loss, we can sometimes find ourselves overwhelmed with feelings of confusion and sorrow. Hopelessness and despair may well up in our hearts, and it can seem as though comfort is beyond our reach, but as Jesus Christ tells us, “Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.” (Matthew 5:4)

May the Lord give you and your family courage and strength to keep you going through this tough time. Allow God’s precious Holy Spirit to penetrate your hearts and give you comfort during your time of sorrow.

Although no words can really help to ease the loss you bear, just know that you are very close in every thought and prayer.

“ I was lucky. Joyce was my cousin. We were close as far back as I can remember. Some of my fondest childhood memories were of visiting my Dad's sister (Aunt "Ginny") and her family in Anderson. ESPECIALLY Joyce! We laughed and played non-stop. I remember Joyce and I would "borrow" cousin Larry's bike. ( Always without his permission. :-) I would pedal as hard as I could with Joyce in back of me. I can still hear him yelling at us as we raced away, with the two of us laughing our heads off. That closeness endured into our adulthood. I'll always love and miss you Joyce.

To Joyce's wonderful husband Mike, her loving daughters Kia & Wendy and their families, Becky & I are so sorry for your loss. May fond memories of your wife, your mother, bring you comfort during this hard time in your life.

With all our love - Luther & Becky Hughes
