“Joyce Weber and I met thru our employment at Delphi in Kokomo. We were both going thru a very difficult time (with incredibly similar circumstances) and we helped each other get thru the day, the month, the year... and our friendship grew as our problems faded. Joyce was always so caring and kind; generous and genuine. I will always be thankful that God brought her into my life when He did. I disagree with His timing in taking my dear friend home, but I know that Joyce is SO happy now. She loved us all well; she is one of the best people I have ever met.

I am sad to not be able to share in the Celebration of her life tonight. Hers is definitely a life worth celebrating. But I have been told the roads in Anderson are ice covered. And I can hear Joyce telling me now not to even think about it but to stay home and be safe. She was such a humble soul, wanting the best for all of her family and friends.

*May memories of Joyce make all of us smile as the days pass.

“ *I love the picture you chose; it captures her joyful spirit. She had a lot of struggles in life, but never forgot how to smile. She looked out for others and tried to bring cheer. I feel privileged to have known her. And tho she had a tendency to worry about things a bit, she had a deep faith that God would see her through. The Savior who died on the cross for her is now welcoming her into the eternal home He has already prepared.
See you later, dear sister.*

“ How does one summarize 40+ years of friendship? We shared marriages and divorces, births and deaths, triumphs and tragedies. My dear friend, rest in peace. No more struggles, no more pain.

Love, Kathy
