“ I am so sorry for your loss. Please know that her family is in my thoughts and prayers. I worked with Juanita for quite some time in the early 2000's at Anderson University. She worked in The Marketplace as a front line server working with the students. I was able got to know her very well. She was a tremendously kind person, and a true friend to all. She had a special gift for bringing happiness into people's lives with her familiar smile, sweet giggle and sparkling personality. She always had time for her friends, and anyone else she met. Juanita was a determined yet humble, unselfish individual, and lived her life with integrity. She loved her children, as she talked about them to me all the time. I am so fortunate that her life's path crossed mine. May God bless.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I worked with Juanita for quite awhile in the 1990's to assist her with getting a job as a birthday party hostess at McDonalds on Broadway, and got to know her very well. She was a tremendously sweet lady, and friend. She had a gift for bringing joy into people's lives with her smile and her personality. She used to bring me homemade pies when we would meet to look for jobs, and was kind to everyone she met. I had not seen Juanita for a couple of years, but she has been in my thoughts since I last bumped into her at Panera Bread. She always had time for her friends, and anyone else she met. I always admired Juanita for the courage, determination, and class with which she lived her life. I also know how much she loved her children, as she talked about them to me all the time. She always wanted her kids to be able to have better than she had. So unselfish. I am lucky to have been able to call her my friend, and I will miss her dearly.

“ My dear sweet sister-girlfriend - you are now a real living angel and will forever and always be in my heart. I love you more than words could ever tell, you know we could pass for twins if you were not so short I know: dynamite comes in small packages, and so did you!. I know you are now up in heaven with Daddy, singing and dancing to your hearts content. I will miss you deeply, but you are no longer in pain and suffering, your heart can now let you run and jump and climb tall trees and your heart was always full of love and compassion for everyone, a big ole loving heart. I will miss your big beautiful blue eyes and your sparkling smile that lights up a room and your quick wit that was just like Dad's, after all you were his birthday present and a precious gift to us all. Love you bunches dear sissy, we will link up that chain when God calls me to heaven.

“ I want to let my Mom and my brother and my other 5 sisters know that I love them very much and know that Juanita loved them all very much and was more than ready to meet the Lord. She was very ill, but seemed to always be able to give a smile and a little chickle once in awhile. I will miss her very much, but know that she is much better off and one day I will see her again.
