“Nanna I will miss you dearly for the summers I spent going to VBS with you, for the nights I would lay in your bed and we would talk for hours and we would read together, for the time I confessed to you I didnt want to live anymore you didn't give up on me you came to the alter with me and prayed with me, for the times we got ready for church and I would always make you laugh by putting on your hats and you would always say how great I looked in a hat, for the time you took me when I was 6 to get my ears pierced, for the time I was scared and you would tell me a bible verse to make me feel better, for the time we would sing together and would always try to get me to sing every Sunday, for the times we would garden together and we would pick beans and snap them, for the times we would go raspberry picking, for the times we would make Christmas candies and sing Christmas songs because it was your favorite holiday, for the time you let me take my driving test in your old Buick, for the time you would let me drive to church when I stayed with you during the summer, for the times you got a kick out of Robbie squeezing your buns lol, for the times you told everyone how proud you were of me for working and going to school and became a phlebotomist and much, much more....anyone you would met you would touch their hearts and make a difference in their lives. I love you more than words can ever describe. Heaven truly gained someone wonderful.
