

Julie Ann Sparks

September 24, 1957 - May 13, 2026

Julie Ann Sparks, 68, beloved mother, sister, grandmother, and friend, of Anderson, passed away peacefully at home on May, 13, 2026.

She was born September 24, 1957, in Anderson, Indiana, to the late Norman and Barbara Sparks. She worked for the US Postal Service for over 25 years in various positions before retiring.

She then worked at the Anderson Public Library for 11 years, primarily at the Lapel Branch. She enjoyed gardening, her dogs, reading, and spending time with her family, especially her grandson, Gavin.

She is survived by her daughter, Melissa (Ric) Savage; grandson, Gavin Gould; daughter, Miranda Savage; son, Steven Savage; sister, Norma Hampton; and brother, David (Bekah) Sparks, and many other family and friends who were touched by her kindness.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday, June 13, 2026, from 2:00 until 4:00 p.m. in the Grile Building at Whetstone Christian Church, 5940 Madison Avenue, Anderson, Indiana 46013.

“ Julie was my BFF since first grade! We loved Neil Diamond, The Monkees, Girl Scouts, riding bikes everywhere, singing 🎵- she was the Star ✨. She was so very talented! An Indianette and in Madrigals. We raised our kids together and even when I moved to California we were still close. I'm so glad I still saw her frequently. She'll always be in my heart 💜. And so will you- Melissa, Miranda and Steven!

Love and prayers, Terri Flaming Thomas

Julie was one of the sweetest people I've ever met! We were indianettes together and we worked at the post office together! I am so sorry for your loss.

My prayers are with your family. Betsy Sheets

I worked with Julie at the Library. She was fun to work with. At Christmas, when elves were needed to "Protect the Claus" I could always count on Julie "Silver Bell" to help wrangle the kids. Whenever I saw her, I would sing "Julie, Julie, Julie, do ya love me? 🎵 She always answered in her best 3 Stooges voice, "Why Sointenly!" Vaya Con Dios, Julie ❤️ “ Julie was my Mom, Linda, best friend for 20+ years. She preceded her by 12 days. I know that they are having a blast in Heaven drinking coffee and eating tacos.
