Hello All....some of you have met me. Some of you like me some of you don't. That is not important to me. What is important is LOVE....w/o conditions. That is what Karla and my sister, Jill had - a LOVE w/o conditions. I tried hard to get a hold of Karla once I found out Jill had died. I never could. I even had a nice containere given to me to put some of Jill's ashes in....I wanted and did do that, but never got a hold of Karla. She was a beautiful woman, sometimes too easy, but very loving. She had told me that Jill gave up when our mom died....I should have listened to both of them. I cannot turn back the clock but I can say they are in God's Book of Life. Rest in peace, Karla and take Jill's hand and follow her to the mansion God has for you. I loved you.
