“ Matthew 5:4 "Blessed are those who mourn,for they will be comforted". Dear Lori and family, Just want you to know that I am praying for you and your family today. I'm sorry I can't attend the funeral but I will be praying that you will be blest by the things that are said about your mom. She was a special lady and she raised a special daughter. Every one who knew her loved her and that is something that should always make you proud of of. I know you will miss her but just remember all the good times you had together and remember she is not in pain anymore and she is in a far better place now. No words that I, or anyone else can say will make it easier but just remember we all love you and your family and share your grief. Always remember I am your friend. Sondra Green

“ Jeff, Lori , David, and all other family members, please accept our condolences on the loss of a very special woman who was Mom, Grandma, Aunt, Sister, and more. Although I didn't know Kathy personally, I did know a portion of her family. Jeff has always been like a big brother to me and I know his family well. Please know that you are all in our thoughts and prayers as you traverse the sorrow that has temporarily encompassed your lives. Please call on us if there is ever anything we can do to assist you or ease your pain through these trying times. Our Love and Best Wishes, The Henry Family

“ I met Kathy a couple months ago at the St. John's Gift Shop. I knew of her illness and we talked about it since I am also a cancer survivor. She will always hold a special place in my heart. She had so much energy, and she was always smiling. My thoughts and prayers are with her family.

“ Dear Charlie, Lori & David, We were so sorry to hear of Kathy's death. We didn't know that she was ill. She was such a viberant person. She made you feel you had known her forever. She had such a wonderful smile. We know that right now it seems you'll never be able to go on. It will take awhile, but if you all stay together for each other you will. And I'm sure that she would want it that way. You'll gradually start to forget all of the pain and discomfort that she went through and start remembering all of the good times and all of the dreams she had for all of you. Remember that, and she will always be in your hearts. God Bless You All! Dave and Linda

“ We have many fond memories of Kathy, mostly from the Pendleton Ball Park. We will always remeber her wonderful smile and her kindness. She always was interested in other people. Later when we would see them at the grocery they always took time to talk to us. She will certainly be missed. May you all feel God's peace and comfort at this time in your lives.
