“ Dear Linda, My sincerest condolences on the loss of your mother. I know you loved her very much and will miss her even more. The love & care you provided to your mom is the greatest tribute you could have made to her, it's exactly what she would have done. Please know that you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers, not only for today, but in the difficult days and months that lie ahead. Fondly, Cathy

“ Dear Linda and family, my sincere condolences for the tragic loss of your beloved mother. I know this has been a long and painful journey for all. Having lost my own father in a similar way earlier this year, I know how difficult it is to go through these moments. At his funeral, they said that he only changed rooms and we should not see him any different than before. I adopted this idea and I hope you can do the same.

“ Dear Family Members, Our deepest sympathy to you in your loss of your beloved mother/mother-in-law, Kathleen, our dear friend and neighbor for so many years. We are so sorry to be unable to be present for the Family Visitation and her Service of Memory & Celebration of Life because of our not returning home from Arizona until Saturday. With our love and prayers as you continue to adjust to life without her physical presence,
