

Kathryn Grace Boffing

April 11, 1919 - July 3, 2002

Anderson - Kathryn Grace Manion Boffing, 83, Anderson, died July 3, 2002 at her residence after a brief illness. She was born April 11, 1919 in Arcadia, New York, and resided in Anderson, Indiana. She lived in this area most of her life. She was a waitress for many years in Anderson at Anderson Country Club and The Spa. She was a veteran of the US Army during WWII. She was an avid animal lover. She is survived by one Son: Mike & wife Donna Boffing of Anderson. One Daughter: Teri & husband Bob Burmeister of Homosassa, Florida. One Sister: Edna Perkins of Anderson. One Brother: Jim Manion. Six Grandchildren: Chad Closser of Anderson. Craig Closser of Alexandria. Rachelle McCord & Ahmed Ayoub of Grenada Hills, California. Marcus Boffing of Anderson. Mason Boffing of Anderson. Matthew Boffing of Anderson. Two Great Grandchildren: Cole Closser of Alexandria. Brock Closser of Alexandria. One Step Grandchild: Johnny & wife Krista Wiles of Anderson. Two Step Great Grandchildren: Addy Burmeister of Anderson. Merissa Wiles of Anderson. Several Nieces & Nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents: Mr. & Mrs. William Manion. One Brother: Wilbur Manion. One Son: Charles Boffing. Cremation will take place. There will be a dinner to celebrate her life on Tuesday, July 9, 2002 from 4-6:00 PM at Mounds State Park Pavillion, Anderson. www.LooseFuneralHomes.com

Tribute Wall

DS

“ We're very sorry to hear of your mother's passing. See you soon.

David & Brenda Shanafelt - June 26, 2014 at 12:00 AM