“ Kathy took a chance on me when she hired me right out of law school to become a deputy prosecuting attorney. I tried my first jury trial with Kathy sitting at counsel table next to me, guiding me along the way. She taught me a lot over the years, and was a mentor to so many young lawyers. Her legacy of mentorship will live on as those she helped will continue to help others.

Sending prayers to Kathy and her family.

“ When Kathy came to work with us in Dubois County, she didn't just come to work, she came to be a member of the community. For instance, when she first arrived, she went around to all the county offices, introduced herself, and talked with everyone. But here's what stood out to me: she also took pictures of everyone, and she put those pictures up on the inside of her office door with the names of everyone, so she could remember everyone's name. I think everyone appreciated the fact that Kathy was genuinely making an effort to get to know them individually and as a person, not just a staff member in a county office.

That's probably what made her such a good prosecutor, especially for domestic violence cases. She took an interest in every person, and she cared about them.

We cared about her, too.
