“ I am sorry for your loss , I met Kathy on several occasions and she was a sweet , caring lady. Thanks to the many family members who was with her in her passing and for allowing me to be there. Thanks for your kindness and allowing me to pray with the family and share in your loss. Gods Best and comfort for you as you remember her and take something you remember Kathy for, and make life better in remembering her.

“ Too many memories to pick just one. We met a few years back and became close friends. We became sisters. In all the years we had know each other we only had one disagreement. Nothing we couldn't work out. She was my bingo partner and my gambling partner. She loved to go with me to the casino. She loved deeply. She especially loved her kids, grandkids, nieces and nephews among all the rest of the family. She loved a lot of people. She was a beautiful person person and a beautiful soul. She was always smiling unless someone pissed her off, then she was a spitfire. Especially if someone messes with her kids or grandkids. She would take someone out to protect them. She was a good woman and now she is a beautiful angel. She is watching down on us and will continue to protect her kids. Rest well my sister and I will see you again some day. My ❤️Is heavy now. I ❤️ You!
