Kelley Sue Schube, 43, of Anderson, passed away unexpectedly May 22, 2014 at her residence. She was born on March 11, 1971 in Anderson, Indiana. She was a devoted mother, an outstanding wife, good friend and a homemaker. She loved to color in coloring books and watch soaps on the television. Kelley cherished time with her family, had a radiant smile and goofy laugh. She was faithful to Jehovah and believed in him with all her heart and loved to share what wonders she learned. She was a beautiful person, inside and out. Kelley was optimistic about renewal and wanted it in many ways throughout her life. Although Kelley struggled with many different battles throughout her life, she learned to trust in Jehovah and rely on him. Left to cherish her memory are husband, Bruce Allen Schube; daughters, Darian Tyler Schube and Caitlin Olivia Schube; brother, Robin wife, Joy Cook; a loving sister, Michelle Cooper and family; nieces, Cheyanne Goslar and Skylar Cook; nephew, Robin Hunter Cook; cousins, Jaimi Bales, Jennifer Cole, Misty Knutson and Kyle Knutson; and many dear friends. In death she is reunited with her mother, Rebecca Frazee; grandparents, Martin and Mary Frazee; beloved aunt, Patricia Frazee; and cousin, Jessica Knutson. Jehovah saw you getting tired and cure was not to be. So he put his arms around you and whispered, "Come to Me". A Golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands now rest. It broke our hearts but He only takes the best. Author/source unknown www.loosecares.com.
