“I was so sorry to hear about the death of Kenneth Russell. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone you love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk to, laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. And all the good things people say do not take that pain away. When I lost my mother to Cancer, it was very devastating to me. What comforted me are the words found in the Bible for the future at Revelation 21:3, 4 and Psalm 37:9 - 11, 29 about our dear loved ones. May these also bring you comfort. Deepest Sympathy, Ms. Floyd
