“ Kim, I still love and miss you everyday!! I have never gotten over losing you, my best friend of over 20 years. You will NEVER be forgotten or far from my heart and prayers. I miss you so much, still, after all these years. It still feels like yesterday when they called to notify me. You're kids have grown into beautiful, wonderful adults! I wish we could go on one more endless ride in the country!!! Still grieving for the loss of my best friend, Rita Lynne McDonald

“ To the family Bargo: Your loss has been shared by many these past few days. I too will miss the intense woman, jokester, and thoughtful friend, that was Kimberly Kay. I have known her since she was a child, not much different than her children are, so the simple words ?I am sorry about your loss,? don't begin to express the emotions and feelings that are pounding on me this day. My prayers and thoughts will be with you all, through the coming days. God Bless, Terry

“ To the Bargo family, My deepest sympathy to you all. As you all know, Kim and I grew up together and were good friends. Although we drifted apart the last few years, I often wondered how she was doing. I moved to TN in August of 03\ and we hadn\’t had contact since then. My oldest daughter, Karissa, and Kim\’s children are related and I hope someday her kids will find peace knowing she no longer has to suffer. I will keep you all in my prayers and hope that you can get past the grief and remember the good times. I\’m sorry I can\’t be there with you in your time of sorrow. Sincerely,
ShonnaWrightCline

“ We had some great times in the Acre growing up. The Bargo\'s, the Taylor\'s and the Milburn\'s got into all kinds of mischief growing up. We are missing one of our own its a sad day for all. My thought and prayers are with your family. Francine Milburn-Simpson

“ Kimberly Jean the Green Bean was her nickname when she was a very little girl on Burton Place. Our times together were full of adventure and imagination. I choose to remember those times with Kim. The Clubhouse, Pirate\'s Island, Mary\'s store, Ditch em', the creek, Nicholson file, Biddles Hill... Those Bargo kids were always getting us into trouble and we loved every minute of it. Growing up would have been boring without her!! I am so sorry I can\'t be there with you all. Sincerely, Teresa Taylor Jenkins Note to Mr. Bargo... it really was Kim who almost set the gargage on fire, not me. She always blamed me??
