“ To the family of Kristina, I'm sure you don't remember me but I am the daughter of Judy Hostetler. Our mothers were friends back in 1970's when they met at the Friends church. Kristina was a very special friend to my mother! I have fond memories of visiting at your house. Prayers for all of you as you say goodbye to your beautiful mom!

Thank you Cindy! I do remember you. I used to get hand me down clothes from you. I was always excited to have a sack of clothes to go through. I believe my dad, Richard, went to school with your mom. I often think of Janet and Charlie.
