“ Uncle Larry would bend over backwards to help anyone. One day my husband was out of town and I called to ask how to get some string out of my tiller tines. He tried explaining it to me, a girl, but I wasn't following and he could tell. I said well it's OK, I'll wait till my husband gets home. Fifteen minutes later Uncle Larry's big red truck pulls up. He came over on his own accord and took the tines off my tiller, cleaned the string out and put them back on. I was able to till the garden before a rain. I'm very thankful to have family like Uncle Larry and Aunt Lou in my life! God bless to the whole family. I'll be praying for you and thinking of you as you go through this sorrowful time. Love, Terri and family
