“ *To my cousins.
I'm sorry. For your loss. Only met Larry at our home in AZ when he and Paul Wallace came. We were eating with family in our big Arizona room and they made our FAMILY dinner a little bit bigger.* ”

“ Patty,Lanna,and Helen and family,we loved Larry from the time we first met him.He had a sense of humor,loved to travel,and he came to see us in FI,He Patty,Michael and Rita Keller.What a wonderful time we had!!The first time we were in his home was just after he and Patty were first married and he fixed supper for Eugene&I,and the whole Keller/Wrightsman family were there!He really made a very good Dinner!Loved his love of children.He loved flower and candles.When they came to visit Eugene and I in FI,he and I went to a craft store and he bought me 3 big Yankee candles and some flowers from Walmart. I still have the large Yankee candles.I will light them in honor of him.He really was a wonderful Brother-In - Law.Mostly we looked at him like we did a brother!!We are glad he no longer has to suffer any more.LARRY TUCKER, YOU WILL ALWAYS BE IN OUR HEARTS FOREVER!!
