Les you were a great instructor & friend brother, I'll miss the laughs & beers @ Pizza Hut in Muncie, & the dives we took. You're missed brother, & sadly I didn't get a chance to say goodbye because I didn't find out you'd went on to a greater place in Heaven until weeks after your passing, living in Florida & not getting on "social media" takes longer to find out things of this nature. I'm sure you're really living it up in Heaven with Jesus, Moses etc & past family members. It's been 10 years & you're missed. I still have my SCUBA Certificate on my wall here in Florida with your name in it which reminds me of you brother. RIHeaven

“ My heart goes out to the entire family. My twin sister and I graduated with Les and he was just one day older than us and he never let me forget it! I now live out of state and am not able to be there. Just wanted the family to know how saddened and shocked I am. He as all of you know was a true, honest, wonderful, caring fun loving man! He took time for so many. I have talked to him on the phone for a length of time several times. I was home at Christmas and time went by so quickly did not get to see him like we planned. I had missed the class reunion and he said he wanted to have lunch when I was home. He is in his heavenly home now and I know when I get there we will have that lunch. May God bless and my love to all of you. Sharon(Holder)German

“ My heart and deepest condolences to the family. I was not so fortunate to see him often as many did but I did have random calls from him every year. The few hours of conversation a few times a year meant the world to me. I will always cherish those phone calls. I will never forget all the winks and smiles he gave me through high school. He never failed even way back then to always take time and ask how I was doing. He was by far one of Gods greatest creations of a man. One of the most loving and caring men I ever had the privilege of knowing . RIH my beautiful friend. I will miss you.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the Hiatt family and all of the broken hearts due to this great loss. I grew up in the same neighborhood, but Les was just the older brother of my friends, Don and Brendie, until I ran into him at Ball State in the early 90's, and made the "mistake" of sitting next to him in Biochemistry. We had a professor who spoke very broken English, and well, chemistry in general, was probably not one of our greatest strengths anyway. Going back to school as adults isn't easy. It was somewhat of a foreign language without the foreign instructor. Les and I would sit there in the lecture hall and take turns trying to interpret what she had said. We were creative and ornery and would get to laughing at times...a lot of the time actually. That was probably the closest I ever came to being somewhat disruptive in class. We would both be nervous before a test, but he was always so positive, encouraging and would give me a big bear hug and eventually say, we aren't studying anymore, we know this and just smile. He had a great smile. Contagious. We went on to take some other classes together. I am so thankful I had the opportunity to really get to know him. Les had a way of making you feel important. He was so genuine. You could just be your goofy self, and he appreciated that. He absolutely adored his children and loved his family. Though we are hurting from this loss, we are all better people, because we had the chance to share part of our journey together. Les, you have inspired many and will be greatly missed.

“ *Dear Hiatt Family,
Having gone to Leach and Frankton with your kids, I know what a close-knit, strong family you are! Les was one of my favorite seniors my freshman year when we played football together. He was an outstanding athlete and a great role model for the younger players. Les was born to be a leader, and he did it well. I am so sorry for your monumental loss.*

“ *We never really know or realize the impact we have on others. We write our Legacy every day, through words, actions, deeds, our time, our smile, our jobs, children, grand kids, our friends, family and even those that watch us from a distance. I believe our dear lost friend Leslie DeWayne Hiatt would be so very humbled to read his Facebook page right now!!
The world is in desperate need of more Les Hiatt's!!
May we all strive and make it a personal goal to always leave a positive vibe with all we cross paths with.
To Barbara and Larry -
Job well done in raising a dynamic family! God Bless your family!*

“ One of the most honest & truest of friends. He held nothing back for anyone! How wonderful that a person could touch so many lives in a positive way. I'm am so grateful to have had personal & fun times with this totally giving person. One of my bestest of friends & will miss him so much. Les brought joy & laughter to so many people. His time on earth was a blessing. Wonder father & grandfather & brother & friend. I wish I could meet another like him but Les Hiatt was truly "one of a kind"!! His smile will be shining down on all of us from heaven now. Peace & love to all his family & all of us that have a heartache from missing him.,

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the entire Hiatt family. I can't imagine the kind of pain you're going through, losing a son, Larry and Barb. I hope to make it to the visitation, but because of my recent surgery I don't go out by myself if there is bad weather. If I don't see you there, please know I'm thinking of you often and love you both very much! Sincerely, Nola Nottingham

“ May peace be with the Hiatt family. As a student in my high school History class and as a outstanding member of the high school track team Les provided me with so many good memories and much laughter. He was truly a great individual to be around. So hard to believe in the last few months we have lost Les, Barry and Coach Tom Mitchell.

“ I'm heartbroken with the loss of this wonderful man. He was the perfect partner in crime and he was always there for others. I'm glad that Les was in my life and I'm blessed to have had him love and protect me. He was always so supportive of other's dreams and he would always help people achieve that. I will always remember the wonderful times together and all of the bike rides we would take together and our vacations. The one thing that I will always cherish was our goofy smiles we made to each other. I love Les dearly and he will always live forever in my heart. Love and miss you so much already.
