

Linda K. Kerr

September 15, 1942 - March 20, 2026

Linda K. Kerr (Gooding), 83, of Anderson, Indiana, passed away peacefully in her home, surrounded by her loved ones, on March 20, 2026.

She was born on September 15, 1942, in Anderson, Indiana, to Ernest Gooding and Elizabeth Quinn (Martin). Linda spent her life in the Anderson community and was known for her strong spirit and love for her family.

Linda loved going to the casino; everyone who knew her knew that was one of her favorite pastimes. When she was younger, she proudly purchased her own swimming pool, something she was very proud of and enjoyed for many years. She absolutely loved being outside, especially when the weather was warm and the sun was shining.

Above all, Linda's family was everything to her. She cherished the time she spent with her loved ones, especially her grandchildren, who brought her immense joy.

Linda is survived by her children, Stacey (Michael) Cordova, Tim (Kellie) Hensley, and Jamie (Edward) Rhodus; sisters, Jackie Craig, Tami Detling; brother, Tony Gooding; brother-in-law, Monte Baker; grandchildren, Antonio Cordova, Nicole (Matt) Sidwell, Scott (Allyssa) Hensley, Kyle (Morgan) Hensley, Kayla (Austin Pettigrew) Sizelove, Dominick Rhodus, JoHanna Rhodus; several great grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by beloved husband, James H. Kerr; parents, Ernest Gooding and Elizabeth Quinn; sisters, Carmen Doub, Cindy Lane, Lora Susan Baker; and brother, Steve Goodrick.

Her wishes were to be cremated.

She will be remembered for her love, her independence, and the special memories she created with those closest to her.

“ Aunt Linda did enjoy being outside (especially poolside)! Some of my fondest memories as a kid was going to family BBQs and jumping in that pool. We had so much fun those summers with family. Miss you Aunt Linda ❤️
