“Liselotte was a very close friend of ours for 30 years, being neighbors for much of that time. She attended church with us at North Anderson Free Methodist Church after accepting Jesus Christ as her personal Savior in 1980. I Merrijoy went with her to her homeland in Austria in 1986 and enjoyed meeting her family and seeing the grandeur of her native land. We took Liselotte and her granddaughter, Beth, to Frankenmuth, Michigan and had a great weekend there. We have appreciated her many prayers for us down through the years. The Mantors Dave, Merrijoy, John and Tony have many wonderful memories of Liselotte.
