

Lloyd Wesley Eskew

July 29, 1931 - September 23, 2024

Lloyd Wesley Eskew, 93, of Anderson, passed away peacefully on September 23, 2024. He lost his beloved wife of 73 years just 50 days prior. He was born on July 29, 1931 in Anderson, and lived a life filled with love, creativity, and service.

A proud veteran of the United States Army, Lloyd was stationed in Alaska during the Korean conflict. After his military service, he dedicated his career to the Delco-Remy factory. However, his true passion lay in his artistic pursuits. Lloyd was a skilled artist who delighted in creating opportunities to bring joy to others through his work, gifting many pieces to friends and family.

With his brother Don and son-in-law Jim, he frequented local craft fairs to share his woodworking and painting talents with the community.

Known for his gift of storytelling, Lloyd often regaled friends and family with tales of his mischievous childhood adventures. His sharp memory and ability to weave narratives brought laughter and warmth to those around him, even in his final days.

Lloyd came to know the Lord later in his life, but his faith profoundly impacted his final years. He was an active member of Ovid Community Church and enjoyed attending service every Sunday with his wife. He loved to keep his mind active with books, documentaries, and puzzles. Even in his last week of life, he kept a novel and a word search on his bedside table. Lloyd was preceded in death by his wife Robertine “Tiny” (VanMatre), who passed away on August 3, 2024 and their son, Tony, who passed away in 1989. Lloyd is survived by his children Debbie (Jim) Abbott and Randy (Emily) Eskew and was a treasured grandfather to Josh (Holli) Funk, Nick Abbott, Alissa (Tyler) Prater, Jessie Eskew, and Nellie (Bryce) Crocker. He also took great pride in his role as a great-grandfather to Aiden and Levi Funk, Sydney, Syllas, and Shyann Abbott, and Nori, Henry, and Hudson Prater, and as a great-great grandfather to Jasiah and Jeremiah. Lloyd was the last surviving member of his immediate family, including his parents Enos and Winifred (Gray) and siblings Keith, Don, Jim, Delores Hackleman, and Betty Cates. Lloyd's legacy of creativity, faith, storytelling, and family devotion will be remembered fondly by all who knew him. He will be deeply missed and forever loved.
