“ Dear Small Family, I would like to extend my sincere condolences to each of you. Although we are not acquainted personally, however, we universally share the pain of losing a loved one in death. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away our loved ones. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk to, laugh with, or hold our loved ones can be most difficult to bear. A key to enduring this suffering is knowing that the Bible teaches that "there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous" Acts 24;15, our loved ones sleeping in the graves will come forth and have the opportunity to live forever under peaceful conditions right here on earth. John 5;28,29; Rev. 21;3,4; Psalm 83;18 While grief at the loss of Lois is great, joy at receiving Lois in the resurrection will be greater. Mark 5;42 Please read and gain strength from God's promises during this difficult time and the days to come. Take care,
