“ She will truly be missed. I met her when we both lived in Applegate apartment, we became close friends we looked out for each other. When I lost my son s there for me, as well as I looked out for her when she had a breathing attack. After she moved to Anderson we still sent each other Christmas cards every year . I loved her she was a beautiful person inside out. So to the family you all was blessed with a wonderful mother and grandmother. May God give you all peace at this time. Marie Nash
