“ I have known Lonnie for about 18 years now and Lonnie did not deserve such a tragic end. His warm smile brought happiness to everyone whose life he touched. He was a kind man, a gentle man, a friend to all he encountered. May the angels watch over him and bring him peace and avenge his life being brought to such an abrupt halt.

“ I remember taking Lonnie and my son Greg to the zoo in Birmingham when they were both very young. Ruth, Harold myself and Ronald let them run and have fun together. Lonnie couldn't read at that time because he was so young and of course, Greg told him to go into the wrong one. He told him that the next time he came to Birmingham he was going to learn to spell. I love you and miss you Lonnie, Aunt Mavis Griffin Green "It's not that I grieve for them, The reason that I cry But it's that I miss them dearly And this is why, So, instead of sitting here with oh such tears, I will thank The Lord for the memories of precious years" You loving aunt and uncle, Mavis and Ronald Green

“ It will be the little things that you will remember the quiet moments, the smiles, the laughter. And although it may seem hard right now, it will be the memory of these little things that help to push away the pain and bring the smiles back again.” I'm remembering the little boy with the bright eyes and the fast smile. The little mischief maker, free with his hugs and love. The young man making a family and a life of his own. Remembering and continuing to love Lonnie. Aunt Ada, you'll always be in my heart Love Lives On Those we love are never really lost to us-- we feel them in so many special ways-- through friends they always cared about and dreams they left behind, in beauty that they added to our days... in words of wisdom we still carry with us and memories that never will be gone... Those we love are never really lost to us-- for everywhere their special love lives on. ~ Amanda Bradley ~
