

Loran Penrod

June 1, 2019

Loran Penrod, 86, passed away June 1, 2019 with his son by his side. Born 1932, he was a life-long resident of Anderson with 45 years of service to the Delco Remy division of General Motors. He served in the Navy aboard the USS Willard Keith. In 1955 he married Patsy Cheever who preceded him in death. Together they raised two sons.

In his retirement years, he enjoyed spending time at their lake cottage in LaGrange County, visiting family in Florida and vacationing at the beach in North Carolina. He was known for his light-hearted and jovial outlook, joking with his care givers right up to the end.

He is survived by sister Pat Leisure of Anderson; son Phil Penrod (Beth Ann) of Pittsburgh, PA; daughter-in-law Debbie Penrod of Anderson; grandsons Phillip, Jim and Taylor Penrod of Anderson; grandsons Eric and Alan Penrod of Pittsburgh; and great grandsons Seth and Ethan Penrod of Anderson. His son Doug Penrod passed away in 2014.

Visitation will be Thursday from 6-8 pm at the Loose Funeral Home, 200 W 53rd St, Anderson. Funeral service and interment will be private.

Memorial gifts may be made to the St. Vincent Regional Foundation, 2015 Jackson Street, Anderson IN 46016. Please direct gifts to the cancer center fund.
