From our days at Rolling Hills our friendship began. May not have talked daily and at times were states apart but always knew if one needed the other , we would be there. My heart hurts at knowing I won't see your beautiful smile but I know my friend you are in the arms of ALL our other Angels and gazing at the Glory you all share. So many memories I will cherish. Alot of those with our kids, Kris, Amber & Angela & Brandon. All the fun with Norm, Cindy and the kids! I will never forget you and when I think of you I will SMILE:) Love you always my friend. I will see ya when I see ya!

“ Lori was the kindest person one could ever want to meet. We were in class together at Harrison College. I will never forget her speeches about Angel 's , because she was an angel herself. MY deepest condolences go out to her family for the loss of this wonderful human that is now God's special Angel.
