“ My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. I lost my own father two weeks ago. I will always remember Mrs. Creed as my favorite teacher. I will always remember the day I came into her classroom and I told her I was getting married and she told me that she knew who the guy was because I had been writing his name on all my papers and she knew him. She told me he was a good guy and I am still married to him after 46 years. She was a important part of alot of lives and she will always be loved.
