“ I became acquainted with Lorraine after she married my Uncle Lester, a late in life marriage for them both. Lorraine was a wonderful homemaker and the two of them enjoyed a loving companionship together. I thoroughly enjoyed many visits to their home in Anderson and am grateful to have known her and for the consideration and love she gave my uncle at the end of his life. Rest in peace Lorraine.

“ She was a wonderful lady who I loved. I met her when she married my Uncle Lester. I frequently went to their home in Edgewood for a visit. I will miss our daily conversations.

I know she is in heaven and has reunited with those who went before her.

“ One time on our way to visit them our son Brad somehow got bubblegum in his eyelashes!!! Not sure how he did that!!! So Lorraine took some peanut butter & rubbed it in & got it out!! It was always fun to visit her & George. And eat a cherry pie that she had made. And George was such a funny man!! She will be missed by her family.
