“ Have known Lou for over 60 years as a friend, wife of my sister and, most of all, as my third brother. Although, at first, I wasn't happy with him as he was taking away my big Sister. However, he quickly won me over by taking me to ball games, out to eat, etc in his new red and white Ford convertible. After that, I had ample opportunity to get to know him as the great person he was. I have never known a better person as he always gave freely of his time helping others and provided aid and advice to those that needed it. I miss my brother, but am extremely happy that he is no longer in pain and will be back with my sis. Rest easy Lou in God's healing grace---you deserve it. Love from Bro Carl and Sis Freesie
