“ A beautiful unique and precious lady, this Lucy Horton...She asked me to be her hairdresser 44 years ago...before I even had a license...every week since that time we spent quality time together. Friends we became right away as her sweet soft spirit I was truly drawn to. We have shared new births, deaths, joys, celebrations, disappointments and heartaches.

As I watched her slide show of memories tonight, I am reminded of how much Lucy enriched the lives of those around her. I can't believe how swiftly the time has gone by....much has happened...many changes. Through the quickly passing of the years one thing remained unmoved; Lucy's love for her family. Her love for Jesus. Her love for her friends.

We celebrate your life sweet lady...enjoy your many rewards. Our lives have been greatly enriched and in our hearts you will remain forever and ever. 💖

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took his hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss.
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief.
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee.*

*God wanted me now;
He set me free!*

“ Lisa
I was so sorry to hear about your mom. Everytime I would come home to Indiana and we would go to church she was one of the few people I knew there and it always made me feel good to know someone in the church and be able to catch up on grand kids and stuff. I know you will miss her dreadfully but just always remember that we will see them again one day and death will be no more. Take care Lisa I will keep you and your family in my prayers
