“ Ann and Pete were customers for years at Odell's. They were both very talented and loving. Ann's laugh was simply contagious and joyful! Always happy and full of life. RIP Ann, you and Pete are finally reunited. ♡♡

“ I worked with Ann at Anderson Public Library. She shared her love of photography with me. In doing so, she encouraged me to start taking photos. I remember going to Wabash to see her beautiful photo of the Paramount building hanging in the Honeywell Center. She was very proud of that accomplishment. When I worked with her, we enjoyed talking and laughing together. I know that she missed her husband very much. I am sad to hear that she has left this world. I am comforted in knowing that she can once again say those three words to her husband.

“ *Ann and I had been friends since 1964, and in our pre-retirement years worked together.
I no longer live in Anderson, and just now learned of her passing.
She has been reunited with her beloved Pete.
I am beyond full of grief.*
