“ Prayers for you all. He will always be remembered at St. Andrew's and thought of often when we see all the wood work he did throughout the church.

Great man and family.

I'm praying for your family as you grieve. I thought very highly of Harold. I saw him two years ago in Indiana and he gave me one of his wooden crosses. He gave Dale one several years ago made out of a stained glass window from St. Andrews. I am so honored to have these, and to have known him. He will be missed by many. Tomiko and Dale Moore
