“ I have enjoyed luther as a patient and a friend for almost ten years. He was very patient man and good patient too .We talked a little and laughed a little and he was always pleasant and polite.I am sure that he is in a better place now. May God bless him and his loved ones. My sincere condolences to Mr Porter\'s family. Salah Elsharty, MD

“ One of the most gentle and kind souls I've ever known! He was a man of integrity that I looked up to and admired. My heart aches as I write this, of how Luther won't be around to talk with about life and all the things that really matter in this life. Oh yes, the endless conversations about cars that we so enjoyed together, preferably the CADILLAC. He also was the kind of person to take time to smell the roses in the way of taking a country road route to some place as opposed to the time saving highways, to enjoy unventured beauty and tranquility of the world! Maybe frustrating to others but not to me, I admired that in him. He was the smartest man I ever knew! Luther could have been any thing that he would have put his mind to! Very well read and could converse with any one from heads of state to the simplest of people and they would all learn something from him!! I feel so fulfilled and blessed that I took the time in my life to get to know him! Anyone that did not sure missed a great opportunity. I will miss that infectious smile of his and his wonderful laugh. I will never forget the first time I saw him put out his cigarette by twisting out the tobacco and putting the butt in his pocket to be thrown away later as not to litter mine or anyone elses yard. How considerate he was! I could go on and on about Luther, but I will end in saying that I was humbled and honored that this great man called me his friend! When my time ends here you can be sure that in heaven he will be one of the first ones that I look for. I miss you! Terry Young
