

Margaret Casey Roche

February 15, 1925 - November 8, 2021

Margaret Casey Roche died November 8, 2021, at the Majestic Care Retirement Community in Carmel, IN. This day would have been her 69th wedding anniversary to her husband Jim. Today they were able to share it together again after being separated for 30 long years.

Margaret was born February 15, 1925, in Cylon, WI to William and Mary Casey. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband James, brothers Kenneth and Miles and, sister, Carmen.

She is survived by her daughters Kathleen Hicks (husband Tony) of San Diego, CA, Sharon Buckles of Indianapolis, IN and Mary Ellen Gross (husband David) of Carmel, IN. Grandchildren Nick and Dan Cavanaugh, Ashley and DJ Hicks, Alex and Ethan Buckles, and James and Amanda Gross. She was a great grandmother to Kyler Cavanaugh. Many nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Margaret attended the New Richmond High School class of 1943 and Minneapolis Business College. She worked at Boeing Airplane Co in Seattle, WA where she met the love of her life Jim, US Army from Anderson, IN. They moved back to Anderson to raise their family. Margaret was an active member of St Mary's Catholic Church until she moved to Carmel and became a member of St Maria Goretti. She loved golfing, playing cards, and dancing. A Mass of Christian burial will be held Nov 17, 2021, at 11:00, am at St. Maria Goretti Catholic Church in Westfield, IN with visitation one hour prior and a private graveside ceremony to be held at Maplewood Cemetery in Anderson.

In lieu of flowers please send a donation to the St Mary's Church in Anderson "St Mary's People for the Steeple" to repair the church's old steeple www.stambrosestmary.org <<http://www.stambrosestmary.org>>, go to online giving St Mary, Anderson and click on Parish Improvement/Renovation or to the American Cancer Society.
