“ Margaret never had an unkind word to say about anyone. I just loved her so much & we used to celebrate our birthdays together since they were only a week apart by going to Red Lobster. One year she was too unsteady to go so I went to Red Lobster took it to her house. I have many wonderful memories of sitting in her sunroom watching Mounds Park together.

I used to take her to church every Sunday & we had a nice visit doing that as well. Lots of times we would go out to eat afterwards. Till we meet again "My Precious Friend".....I love you Margaret,
