“ Every time someone asks me why I wanted to become a teacher, I always tell them it is because of this woman. Mrs. Haas was the very best teacher I have ever had in my entire life. She inspired me to become a teacher, she showed me I was worthy of happiness, she built me up and tried so hard to help a poor little girl from a broken, abusive home. I regret that I was never able to tell her how much she meant to me and how she helped to shape my life. I miss her every day and wish so much that she was here to see me be the teacher she helped me to be. I hope I make her proud. My condolences to her friends and family. She is missed very much. -

“ Mrs. Haas came to mind today. I was in her 5th grade class at Valley Grove. She inspired me to go into teaching. How lucky we were to attend a small country school in Indiana. She always had such creative projects for us to do. I am now teaching in Colorado. I was so sad to see this notice. She is so fondly remembered. Le'Ann Johnson Key

“ I remember how she would twirl the batons during half time at the ballgames at Ligonier High and in parades on town of Ligonier, she was awesome. Sympathy to the family.
