April 3, 1929 - June 13, 2025

Marilyn Ann Tranbarger passed away on June 13, 2025 in Sarasota, Florida after a long illness. She was 96 years of age. She is survived by her husband of 75 years Glen, her son David, daughter Jane and daughter-in-law Karen Reed, all of Sarasota. She is also mourned by her brother Thomas and sister-in law Ginger (Stankey) Sowash, as well as many nephews, nieces and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her parents Harold and Martha (Vanness) Sowash, as well as grandson Andrew Tranbarger. Also fondly remembered are father-in-law Orville Tranbarger, mother-in-law Dorothy (Brown) Tranbarger, brothers-in-law Wilbur Tranbarger and Paul Tranbarger, sister-in-law Phyllis (Hunt) Tranbarger and nephew Donald Jay Tranbarger.

Marilyn was born in Anderson, Indiana, on April 3, 1929. Despite the Great Depression and a World War, she enjoyed a happy childhood and graduated from Anderson High School in 1947. It was there that she met the love of her life, Glen. They were married August 7, 1949 and recently celebrated their 75th wedding anniversary with many friends and family in attendance. Their first home together was a cozy house in Anderson's Meadowbrook neighborhood. Glen was employed as a draftsman and engineer by Delco-Remy division of General Motors. When Glen was called to Army service in 1952, Marilyn followed him to Ft. Riley, Kansas where Glen taught basic auto mechanics to troops headed overseas. Prior to her marriage, Marilyn worked as a typist for Delco-Remy. Following Glen's military service, the couple returned to Anderson and after a few years built a house on ten acres in the countryside where they lived happily for the next 57 years, raising two children, David and Jane. Glen retired from Delco-Remy in 1986, after which they spent many winters snowbirding with Glen's brother Paul and Paul's wife Phyllis, who had been Marilyn's best friend since childhood. The four soon decided that Sarasota, Florida was the place to be. Glen and Paul flew kites on Siesta Beach while Marilyn and Phyllis enjoyed tropical relaxation. Glen and Marilyn moved to Sarasota permanently in 2014. Marilyn enjoyed taking care of her family. She was the first to rise in the morning and the last to go to bed at night. She enjoyed family get-togethers, reading and traveling. One of her greatest joys was her grandson Andy. In her later years, she loved to look through her many accumulated albums of photographs. She was a member of Fifth Street United Methodist Church in Anderson and Trinity United Methodist Church in Sarasota. Calling hours for Marilyn will be held on Saturday, June 21st, 2025 from 9:00
