“ Grandma, I was your Grandson, Not a special friend. Without your love and support back in 1969, I would not be able to walk now. I was born with club foot, and you took my mother and myself into your family to raise as yours. Obviously some members of your family still do not care for your choices that you made. As a child I grew up and only knew you as my Grandma. You taught me about Gods love, and his will for our lives. You tried to show me about seeing the good in people. I knew you loved me, and I loved you. I still know with your illness, that you did not recognize me anymore. I still would visit and sit and talk with you and cry. I miss you and I love you. I know in my heart that you are with God. RIP

“ Grandma,

Though you were always my special friend, you were the only grandmother I ever knew. I know i wasn't planned on, and I know now, you were not even blood but you raised me, loved me, and taught me about Jesus. I love and miss you everyday, I am always constantly talking about you and grandpa to anyone who will listen, and I know you are with Jesus now, but I sure could use a good talk right now, well, anytime really.

I have four beautiful children and I hope you are looking in on them from time to time because I always need you and they could sure use your prayers from above.

I love, respect, and cherish my time with you and by the looks of things we all sure could use you and your wisdom

I love you grandma, and thanx to you, I love Jesus always!
