“ Dear Mr. Bob: I am sorry I am not able to attend the Celebration of Life for Marj. With you, your girls and your many friends. I am simply not able to get out in crowds as I used to. I'll be with you in spirit

“ To Marjorie's Family: I am so sorry for your loss. As the days and weeks pass, and you return to life's routine, may you be comforted by our ...God and Father of our Lord... the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those in any sort of tribulation through the comfort with which we ourselves are being comforted by God". 2 Cor. 1: 3, 4. Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Please also find comfort in the following: John 11:11 where Jesus said, "...Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from the sleep." Our Heavenly Father holds out the hope of the resurrection and the ability to see our loved ones again.

“ Much peace & love & light to all who knew and loved Marjorie. She was adored by my mother-in-law, Marjorie's cousin Patty â?? who just left us this summer. I like to think they are at rest now, surrounded by the spirit of those who went before and well remembered by those left behind. Doug and I send our best to Bob and all the family.

“ I have great memories of Mrs. McFadden as we grew up with our slumber parties. I especially remember that she spent one summer teaching Elaine and me to type which is a skill that has served me well and I thank her for that. I will keep you all in my thoughts.
