“ My Lost Love In Loving Memory Of: Mark Alan Jensen July 5, 1968- Sept. 25, 2009 All the tears, that run down my cheek All the what ifs, I continue to think All the pain, that lies in my heart All the thoughts, that keep tearing me apart All the sadness, behind my eyes As much as I don't want to, I must say my good-byes. I need to keep my sorrows to a minimum To continue to cherish the great moments I had with him. I need to let go and let him be For he's been laid down, To rest in peace. My dear Mark, my best friend, Someday we'll meet again. ~Tabatha J. Fuller~ 10-4-09

“ OUR FRIEND Early in our life with you,our friend,you always made us smile and laugh when many could not. Later in our times with you,our friend,we seen you here and there still always smiles and laughter. Like to many times in life,our friend,we just assumed you would still be there. We were in shock when we heard the news today our friend. Things happen in life we will never understand. Where have you gone our friend? Why have you left us this way? Only you know our friend,only you know. So it is with heavy hearts we leave you,our friend,with these final words. We hope you found peace and happiness in death,our friend,that you could not find in life. LOVE ALWAYS YOUR FRIENDS! THE GARRISON FAMILY I send you my deepest sympathy Jim, Chris, Mike, Ashleigh, Cortney, Evan, Michele, and Fran. Find peace in your memories and always keep them close. Love you all and take care!

“ So many wonderful memories...that crooked quirky grin, twinkling eyes, and giggly laugh when he was teasing or playing around...how he took everything and everyone to heart...such a sweet sensitive man. Talking, growing up with, and being with him...We all loved him so much!!
