“ I found this page because I was looking up old friends. I was shocked and saddened to see that my friend Swanny had passed, and at such a young age. Along with Maynard Heck, we played together on Lincoln Rd. for years when growing up. It was so much fun leaving the house in the morning, and going to the Swann house and playing all day. We went up into the awesome treehouse his dad had made, and played basketball and baseball in the field next to the house. My family moved to Edgewood when I started Junior High, and so our paths diverged at that point. I did meet Mark again when he was a bit older and had become a young pastor. From time I would hear how he was doing from my cousin Martha Todd. What a sweet and funny guy he was, with a wonderful family. I knew them all at that time. God bless the Swann family and their offspring. Jeff Todd, formerly of 824 Lone Oak Rd.

“ Mark is my "baby" brother. I loved him very deeply and I think I told him every time that I saw him. We would hug and I would say "I love you Mark" and he would say "I love you too, Sis". Mark had one purpose and you only had to be with him a few minutes to realize what his focus was....to see souls saved by his Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. I will have to say that most of his time and energy seemed to be spent in that purpose. Mark was also a VERY fun loving person and I found that we both had a very similar sense of humor....kind of "corn-bally" and "slap-sticky" all at the same time and he COULD have made a long story for any one of the kids out of those two words :....he was known for his goofy stories and poems/songs that came off the cuff at any given moment....I loved that....there are so many things that I loved not the least of which was his total commitment and dedication to his calling. I will miss you Mark but I look forward to the years we will spend together in pure worship and praise of Jesus. Till we meet again at Jesus feet I love you!
