“ Myself and family spent a wonderful afternoon with my father. The immediate family had the opportunity to see him one final time. My mother was proud, she took comfort in knowing her husband was well respected by others. Mingling with family, friends and acquaintances, a time of reflection.

Proud of my mother, she surprised me...thought the moment might be too large? At the end of the day she handled herself with such grace and strength. I would like to thank all those who came to pay their respects. The staff at Loose top notch. A day entered with hesitancy and uncertainty turned out to be of the best. A day of remembrance, one I will treasure and never forget. Dad I miss you, wish you were still with us...

Love David your son.

“ I was fortunate to be with my father when he left us. Also fortunate to be with my parents on that day. My dad in his final hours was comforted by his wife/my mother Shirlene. It breaks my heart to see her so sad. Dad you are missed, you and mom made me the person I am today. I love you, saddens me we will never see one another again at least not in this life. I'm proud you are my dad, Love David

“ How do you put memories of 68+ years into a few words? The biggest memory is of Marlin being a second big brother. He was there for all of my life's accomplishments - graduation, marriage, birth of my children and even their weddings and more. He enjoyed working with wood and making items. I recall the times when he would come and copy patterns to make wood items. I will always remember when I would call, he wanted to know about Ky weather and when he was done he would say, "Do you want to talk to Shirley B". There is a book of memories stored in my mind and heart for a "special" brother that I treasure.
