“ Uncle Arnie & Vicky, Don & Zac - I remember staying at your house for a week and Vicky stayed at our house for a week. We got matching outfits, the only difference was one was red and the other blue. This was in the summer when Vicky and I were young. I loved staying at your house - it was so clean and tidy. Vicky had hardwood floors in her bedroom with NO dust under the bed. I remember your kitchen had grape vine wall paper at the top and stone below. I remember Aunt Mart fixed pork chops. She was always so loving towards me and kept in touch with me her whole life. I loved hearing from her. I still have the butterfly suncatcher she made for me. She holds a special place in my heart and I will miss her. I'm sorry for your lose of this wonderful, wife, mother and grandma. I have no doubt that we will see her in heaven.
