“ Rose and Family, On the wings of death and sorrow God sends us new hope for tomorrow, and in His mercy and His grace He gives us strength to bravely face the lonely days that stretch ahead and to know our loved one is not dead but only sleeping out of our sight, and we'll meet in that land where there is no night. I never had the pleasure of meeting Marvin, I'm sure he was a wonderful man. Remember when the Lord calls our loved ones home He leaves us with precious memories. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. Harriet Jordan

“ To all of the Beeman Family. You all are in our thoughts for the loss of Marvin. We are grateful that we knew Marvin, and Roger will always remember the times he and Marvin played checkers. And the times he would come to the barn to chit-chat, those are memories that a person can always cherish. You all are in our thoughts and prayers. Sincerely Roger & Debbie Cullipher.

“ Sharon, Jeff, Gene, Robin, Audra, David, Dad, and Aunt Rosie, I am so sorry to hear about the passing of Uncle Marvin. I wish I could be there with you all, but I just can't come right now. I have so many fun memories of Uncle Marvin from my childhood. He always made me feel special and treated me and my mother with such kindness. After my mother passed away, he told me I had her kind eyes. It was just the right thing to say and made me feel so much better. I know you will all miss him, and my prayers and thoughts are with you. Love, Rhonda
