

Marvin Tarter

August 21, 1925 - October 24, 2016

Marvin Tarter, 91, of Indianapolis, passed away on October 24, 2016 at Alexandria Care Center. He was born on August 21, 1925 in the lovely little town of Somerset, Kentucky and resided most of his life in Indianapolis.

He is a retired Truck Driver for Evans Plywood Company, Indianapolis.

At the age of 15, he hobo'd for about one year. He enjoyed cutting down trees, working on small engines, trading knives, making latch hook rugs, and working with plaster of paris. He loved going to Flee Markets with his son, Danny and reading his Bible everyday. He loved Harley's, but as he aged, he traded his Harley for a Honda which rode until he was 86 years old. In his lifetime, he owned 200 cars and had them all listed.

Marvin is survived by his children, Dreathia Lawson of Anderson and Daniel K. Tarter of Indianapolis; sister, Geraldine (Wayne) Garner; half brother, Edwin Allen; grandchildren, Dwayne (Angie) Tarter and Shannon Davis; 3 great-grandchildren, 3 great-great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Ethel Tarter; parents; Oda and Tolia Tarter, 3 brothers and 4 sisters.

Services will be Friday, October 28, 2016, 2:00 pm at Washington Park East

Cemetery, Indianapolis, IN.

Memorial contributions may be made to charity of donor's choice.
