“Mary Ann was our cousin. Our father, Wayne, was her uncle and lovingly named me Everett Dayton Knight in memory of his brother, Mary Ann’s Dad. Even tho we did not see each other very often she held a special place in our hearts. Lois who is about 40 days older than Mary Ann has fond memories of playing together as kids in Rosiclare and of special times of visiting together as adults. Everett, who is younger got to know Mary Ann and Bob in adult life while visiting with Aunt Katheryn, Everett and Wayne’s sister, and for whom Lois named her daughter. Everett is the proud heir of a safe with inscription of “E. D. Knight, MD”. We express our deepest sympathy to you, Bob and your family thru this difficult time. She was a gracious lovely person and she will be missed. Love to you all, Lois Knight Mitchell and Everett D. Knight
