“ Mary was like a second parent to me having had many good memories while at her house when I would visit Steve, Barry and Bill when in grade and high school. I just saw her in May and she was the same as always, friendly, up-beat and so appreciative of her sons who looked after her. Larry Bennett

“ As her niece I have always looked to her as a person I want to be like. Aunt Mary was the most positive person I have every known and Jesus gave her a light she carried every day of her life. Love you Aunt Mary thanks for being such and a good sister and mother figure to my mom.

She was a great mother. My only regret is I didn't tell her so when she was alive. Rest in peace Mom.
