“ I'm so sorry about your sweet mom. I remember coming to your house. I remember her working in the kitchen and making us a priority while we were there. So sweet. I would get lost in your house btw. I spent a lot of time with my Aunt Kay and she repeatedly told me that Aunt Mary was her favorite aunt. That spoke volumes to me since I adopted Aunt Kay. God be with you in your grief Anita. He is especially close to the brokenhearted.

“ Our deepest sympathies are with you Anita, Gabriel and family and Josh. While it's been so many years since we've seen Aunt Mary , or even been with her, the memories of her kindness, and selflessness will never leave. While we're rejoicing her reunion with loved ones in heaven we extend our heartfelt sympathies to those left here. Our sympathies and prayers are with you as you go through these most difficult times.

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your mother. She and Max were always so nice. They looked me up one time when they visited Branson, MO. I knew Max had passed away some time ago but had no idea Neal was gone also. My thoughts and prayers are with you at this most difficult time.
